

I Want Farms!

I am doing some advertising in the north and east, and will have some people here shortly with the money to buy farms.

If you want to sell your farm, come in at once, and list it with me.

Don't wait—come now.

Harland Burkett will play ball at Tulsa during the season of '08, having attached his "John Hancock" to a contract with the management there a few days ago. The Coffeyville team, in whose lineup "Bub's" name appeared most of last season, will not be in the O. A. K. league this year, having failed to pay out. Tulsa offered the Jasper boy an increase over his last year's salary and he responded with the signed contract. "Bub" is as good as they need to be, and will probably be in faster company next year, perhaps even before this season is out.

About the Favorite Incubator and Brooder:

You may be prejudiced against the use of incubators and brooders. If so, it is because your experience has been with a poor one or because you have not used one at all. Read the voluntary statement of a man you know, who used the right kind, the FAVORITE, sold by us.

Jasper, Mo., March 16th.

Wolf Hardware Co., Jasper—Gentlemen:

Will say the "Favorite" Incubator and Brooder we purchased from you is all O.K. We have 141 live, healthy chickens out of 150-egg size. Our first trial. Brooder is out doors and is all O. K.

PARLEY B. CLINE.

Why the "Favorite" is Best.

Why is the FAVORITE brooder and incubator better than others? There are plenty of reasons. Here are a few:

Only best clear lumber used in their construction.

Two separate and distinct heavy walls with dead air space between, making impervious to atmospheric changes.

Even temperature in all parts of egg chamber, absolutely essential to good hatch]

HOT WATER HEATING SYSTEM, the only reliable method.

We'll tell you plenty of other reasons when you call.

"BACHELOR HALL"

A Comedy in 3 Acts,

Will be presented at the Hendricks Opera House by the Junior Class of Jasper High School.

Date Will be Announced Later.

Get Your Seats Early.

The second division of the Belcher opera house played here Monday night, presenting "A Missouri Swede," in which W. M. Belcher plays the title part. The general impression was that the company was better than the play, which was a disappointment. The well known ability of the Belchers had little chance for expression. The crowd was fair, only, the receipts being considerably less than that of the first division of the company, which played here a week before.

John Ward sold his livery business last Monday to Wm. Tabler, for a cash consideration of $1500. The new proprietor is to take charge April 1st. John isn't decided as to what he will do in the future. He disposed of the building in which he was conducting his livery business, some weeks ago, to Mrs. Ursula Tabler. He has other property in and near Jasper, however, and will in all probability not leave here.

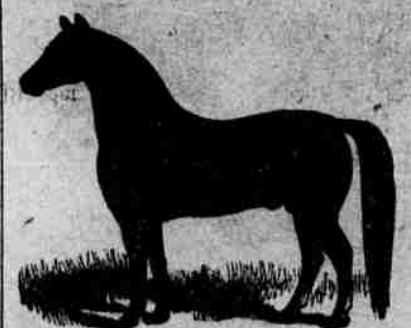

Joseph Snyder, whose serious illness at his home in San Diego, Calif., was mentioned in this column last week, died last Sunday, telegraphic news of his death reaching his daughter, Mrs. A. M. Crandall, here, on the same day. Death resulted from an attack of pneumonia, which his enfeebled constitution was unable to resist. He was in his 78th year, and had lived in California since 1896, prior to which time he engaged in stock feeding west of Jasper on what is now known as the Armitage farm, the center of the recent asphalt finds. The remains will be taken to Crawfordsville, Ind., the old Snyder home, for interment. Mrs. Crandall left for that place Tuesday night.

We've Seen 'Em.

The real, true green bug, the one that kills wheat, is pale green in color, with a dark, irregular line running down the middle of the back. The eyes are very black and shine brightly if the bug is healthy. The feelers are black, while the horns on the rear of the body are only tipped with black. All other green bugs are impostors. This description is given by a Kansan who saw the bugs in the University of Kansas.

Kankakee Jr.
